We Need Your Help! Sister Says So!

Help is needed for this weekend's school fundraiser: Sister's Christmas Catechism. There are numerous tasks to accomplish in order to make the event a success, and we could use some extra hands. All fundraisers help the students and keep our school running smoothly. Volunteers are needed for the following:

Move and set-up chairs: Friday, December 4 at 2:30 p.m. in the Gym. (strong volunteers needed)

Dinner and stage set-up: Saturday morning and/or afternoon, time TBA, in cafeteria and gym.

Move and put away chairs: Sunday, December 6 at Noon in Gym (strong volunteers needed).

If you are able to help, please contact Traci Ziemkiewicz for more details at gtciem@comcast.net or by phone at 724-266-3974.

JV Girls Basketball Update

The JV girls' basketball team got their first taste of tournament basketball last weekend at the Assumption Tip-off Tournament. The Cougars defeated St. Theresa's in their first game before dropping the next two games... despite a spirited second half comeback in game two. Gabrielle Zurnich and Aesling McCullough led all scorers for the weekend with 8 points each. Emma Cullo added 5 while Natalia Juliano, Tessa Juliano, Lauren Padalino, Anna Wieneke and Helen Urfer each scored 2 points. Gabrielle, Aesling and Emma were all awarded team MVP honors for their efforts.

Light Up Night

This Friday night from 5-9PM is Light Up Night in Sewickley. The festivities will include free carriage rides and holiday performances by local choirs, music groups, and dance groups. Many local organizations and businesses will also be hosting holiday activities—many are free. The “lighting of the village” will be at 6:20. If you are able to attend this festive occasion, please stop by the St. James booth on Broad Street where the St. James Athletic Association will be selling their traditional hot sausage sandwiches!

Volunteers are still needed to staff the booth on Friday night and for food preparation work on Thursday afternoon. Please contact John Nicolaus at JLNicolaus@comcast.net or (412)259-8583 to volunteer or for more information.

Steelers Tickets Raffle

The St. James Athletic Association is currently holding a Steelers tickets raffle as its primary fund-raiser for this fall. The prize will be three tickets to the Dec. 20th Steelers game vs. the Packers. Tickets are $10 each. The raffle drawing is being held at the St. James School Christmas Show on Dec. 10th. Please send all raffle ticket proceeds, ticket stubs, and requests for additional tickets, to the Athletic Association through the office.
