Principal's Report :

- St. Joseph's of Coraopolis is closing. This Wednesday, 4/13, a meeting will be held at St. Joseph's with potential feeder schools for the current students. Sr. Diane and Beth DeFilippo and JoAnn Guy from the Recruitment Committee will attend.
- 2 families visited today. Most classes at SJS have openings. Current 1st grade had 33 reenrollments. Not big enough for 2 classes. Depending on how many come from St. Joseph's. 7th going into 8th is a good situation as well for recruitment. 30 students is what SJS likes to keep the class numbers at.
- Joe Treckie (AIU) counselor discussed a possible assembly for parents and students to discuss Internet Prowlers and Predators and How to Keep Safe. Because there is so much internet use among our children, there is a lot of relational aggression going on. For girls and boys separately, the AIU is going to start a program for grades 6-8. An email will go out for parents this week.
